

Transport

Batteries or panels are transported in closed transport vehicle. To reduce mechanical damages, battery needs to be fixed to the floor of the vehicle. Batteries can not be storage on top of each other.

When transporting soaked panels and batteries extra cautious is needed when manipulating, because of the presence of sulphuric acid. Loading and unloading needs to be done with moving vehicles for transport of the loads.